Supper Blinders.—A most extraordinary case of sudden blindness is reported to us as happening on Thursday night last. The wife of Mr. Jones, of the firm of Scott, Jones & Co., hardware dealers, Third street, retired to bed in her usual health. During the night she waked Mr. Jones stating that she had dreamed she was blind. Finding she was all right, she soon went to sleep again, but the dream was repeated. Mr. Jones immediately arose, lighted the gas, and made the alarming discovery that his wife was totally blind. The unremitted efforts to restore her sight have thus far proved unavailing. We learn that Mr. Jones had two cousins afflicted in a similar manner.—Daylon (Ohio) Ledger, Nov. 9.

WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.

THURSDAY, Nov. 19, 1808.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A. M., and was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Rowley, of the Baptist Church.

A message was received from the House of Delegates announding the passage of chapters 58 and 80 inclusive, (except 62 and 75) and asking concurrance. ence. Chapters 51 to 80 inclusive (with the Chapters 57 to 80 inclusive (with the exceptions above noted) were then read the first time by their littles.

On motion of Mr. Hoke the Senate went into Committee of the Whole—Mr. Dix was called to the chair.

The consideration of chapter 55 was resumed and the reading by sections continued until finished. Various amendments were offered, the most important of which was one offered by Mr. Farnsworth increasing the jurisdiction of Justices to three hundred dollars, which elicited considerable discussion, and was finally defeated by a vote of ayes 9, noes 10.

passed:

Chapter 53, of regulations applicable to Joint Stock Companies, whether incorporated under special charters or general laws, was read the second time and, after being amended in several particulars, was ordered to its third reading.

Prayer by Rev. Adam Gregory, delegate from Webster.

Mr. Allison offered a resolution of inquiry concerning the propriety of allowing J. W. Hobbs, ex-Sheriff of Handook county, a longer time for the collection of his receipts. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary,

Mr. Fleming, of Marion, presented two petitions of citizens of Marion county, asking that the Baltimore and Ohio Rallroad be taxed the same as other property. Referred.

Mr. Fleming, of Harrison, asked leave of absence for Mr. Mahon, of Jackson county, for one week, Granted. The Clerk reported a message from the Senate announcing the passage of chapters 44, 45 and 47 of the Code, with amendments, and chapter 48 without amendment.

Mr. Ferguson. of Cabell, moved that amendments, and chapter 48 without amendment.

Mr. Ferguson, of Cabell, moved that the chapters be laid on the table in order that the amendments might be examined. The motion was agreed to.

The same gentleman then offered a joint resolution, which was adopted, providing for the printing of the chapters of the Code as soon as they are enrolled; and, by leave, from the Committee on Revision, reported back chapter 62 (of the preservation of certain useful animals) with an amendment prescribing that deer may be hunted with dogs during the months of October and November only. He also, from the same Committee, reported chapters of the Code from 31 to 104 inclusive.

The calendar was then taken up and chapter 75 of the Code (of the authentication and recordation of deeds and cation and recordation of deeds and other writings) was passed. Chapter of the writings was passed. Chapter 62, reported back from the Committee on Revision with the amendment stated above, and also one providing that if a person shall hunt, range, fish or fowl on the lands of another, without the consent of the owner of said lands, such owner (in former heretofore) shall be entitled to 83 upon conviction for every

The estimated products of the college farm this year are; hay 200 tuns; cats 300 bushels; rys 100 bushels; potatoes 500 bushels; shelled corn 1,200 bushels; besides a good supply of garden vegetables.

In.

The same gentleman moved to take from the table chapter 87, of further security from fiduciaries. Agreed to.

He then offered an amendment, which was adopted, providing that appeals may be taken from the recorder's decision within three months from the time such decision was rendered.

The chapter was then ordered to engressment.
